Dear Friends,

The fourth Sunday of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday, and it is the "World Day of Prayer for Vocations." The Scripture lessons for this day concern the role of the shepherds of God's flock in the Church. Each year on this Sunday, we reflect on the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd who devotedly and kindly takes care of his flock. The title "pastor" means shepherd. A shepherd leads, feeds, nurtures, comforts, corrects, and protects his flock—responsibilities that belong to every Church leader. The earliest Christians saw Jesus as the fulfillment of the ancient Jewish dream of the Good Shepherd. They also wished to include the Gentiles as part of God's flock. Today's first reading describes how Paul and Barnabas opted to listen to the voice of Jesus the Good Shepherd and follow him, and how, like their Master, they were rebuffed and rejected when they tried to share the good news of salvation. It also suggests that the sympathy of the early Christians for the Gentiles caused a rupture with Judaism. The Gospel also offers us both comfort and great challenge. The comforting message is that no one can snatch the sheep out of his Father's hands. The challenge is that pastors and lay people alike should be good shepherds to those entrusted to their care.

Let us become good shepherds: Everyone who is entrusted with the care of others is a shepherd. Hence pastors, parents, teachers, doctors, nurses, government officials, etc. are all shepherds. We become good shepherds by loving those entrusted to us, praying for them, spending our time and talents for their welfare, and guarding them from physical and spiritual dangers.

Let us pray for vocations to priestly and religious life so that we may have more good shepherds to lead, feed and protect the Catholic community.

Fr. Johnson

THE SHEPHERD’S FLOCK

In Christian art, the earliest depictions of Jesus Christ were not of his crucifixion or of his resurrection. The first known renderings of Jesus show him as the Good Shepherd, the image put before us in today’s readings. In the Gospel passage Jesus reveals that he is the shepherd and his followers are his “flock.”

In the first and second readings, we are told more about the flock. The passage from Acts assures us that both Jews and Gentiles are called to follow Jesus. It is faith, not birthright, that makes us part of the company of believers. In the passage from the book of Revelation we learn that the flock that follows this Lamb of God will also be washed in his blood. They will endure a time of trial before they enjoy eternal life. Be assured of the promise, we are told, but know there is a price to be paid.

THANK YOU!

The La Morita Mexico Youth Mission would like to thank all of the parishioners of St. Agnes for your tremendous support of our homebuilding journey to Tijuana. This is the first year that we have made the trip under the sponsorship of our new non-profit corporation instead of the Diocese of Oakland. We want to thank you for your generous donations of baked goods, craft supplies for the children, for your monetary support and especially for your prayers. Because of your continued support, we were able to build three homes, complete with watertight roofs, doors and windows, electrical wiring, storage space in the attic, and interior sheetrock for privacy. The three families were thrilled with their new homes! Our youth and adults created a Christian community through Scripture sharing in family groups, working hard all day, and sharing at campfire. All were grateful for the opportunity to put their Christian faith in practice by building homes for the three families and changing their lives. Thank you again for everything that you did for us!

ST. AGNES COOKBOOKS

If you have ever been to a St. Agnes potluck, you know what wonderful cooks we have in this parish. Now is the opportunity for us to collect and share their recipes. The St. Agnes Cookbook Committee is collecting favorite recipes from our parishioners through May 31. Forms and a collection box are on the Welcome Table in the back of the Church and will be in the Ministry Center during the week. Please use your own, or a relative's recipes—we cannot print trademarked items. You may also submit your recipe on-line at:
www.sacookbook2016@gmail.com.

We will have the printed cookbooks for sale this fall. Questions? Contact Sally Chavez at 925-687-9317 or e-mail gilsal2@sbcglobal.net.

Festival Devotion to the Blessed Mother

We are in the planning stage of facilitating a parish-wide festival celebrating the devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary on Saturday – May 21, 2016 at 6:00 pm. The Flowers of May Festival will include a 9-day novena (May 12-20, 2016, at 7:00 pm in the chapel), a procession, and reception – among others. The logistics of putting together this event will require collaboration across all ministries and therefore, respectfully request your respective ministries participation.

We are in need of the following resources which you may or may not be able to provide but nonetheless thankful of what you or your ministry may contribute:

1. Donation (food, cash, time, talent, and skills)
2. Procession marshals
3. Greeters and ushers
4. Personnel to assist in the reception
5. Personnel to assist in the kitchen

INVITATION TO PRAYER: The Diocesan office of Life and Justice, Catholic Charities of the East Bay and OCO invite you to participate in an interfaith prayer on Monday, April 18th in the Cathedral Christ the Light at 10:00 am to pray for a positive ruling on this day when the Supreme Court will be holding their first hearing on President Obama’s Executive Action on DAPA and DACA. If granted, the DAPA/DACA initiative could bring immigration status to parents of US born citizens and expand the current DACA to allow more youth to access immigration relief.
